

William G. Sutherland Collection

William Garner Sutherland, D.O.

Descriptive Summary

Creator:	Dr. and Mrs. William G. Sutherland The Sutherland Cranial Teaching Foundation Faculty
Title:	William G. Sutherland, D.O. Collection
Abstract:	The Sutherland Collection contains the writings, memorabilia, recorded lectures and voluminous correspondence of Dr. Sutherland, tracing the growth of the Sutherland Cranial Teaching Foundation as well as documenting the spread of the cranial concept as a viable specialty within the osteopathic profession. Included are the unofficial papers of the Sutherland Cranial Teaching Foundation (1950-1971) and the Moorestown Cranial Study Group. The papers were gathered by Anne L. Wales, D.O., an early faculty member of the Sutherland Cranial Teaching Foundation. The Moorestown Cranial Study Group was created by and met in the home/office of Rebecca Conrow Lippincott, D.O. and Howard A. Lippincott, D.O. for the further study and review of cranial procedures and advancements. Materials from the New England Cranial Study

Group are also included. The collection contains transcriptions and slides from lectures by Dr. Sutherland, et al (1947-1948), a manuscript copy of his seminal work, The Cranial Bowl (1939), photographs of Dr. Sutherland and many other early pioneers in the field, and audio and video presentations of classroom and conference lectures by Dr. Sutherland and other leading cranial experts of the time. Also included in the collection are personal items belonging to Dr. Sutherland and correspondence from Dr. and Mrs. Sutherland to Drs. Chester Handy and Anne Wales.

Extent: 96 Boxes

Language: English

Repository: University of North Texas Health Science Center, Gibson D. Lewis Library, University Archives

Historical Note

William Garner Sutherland, D.O. (1872-1954), a Minnesota Osteopathic physician and student of Andrew Taylor Still, discovered the field of cranial osteopathy. Dr. Sutherland referred to his discovery as "Osteopathy in the Cranial Field" (OCF). He founded the Osteopathic Cranial Association in 1946 (which changed its name to the Cranial Academy when it became a component of the American Academy of Osteopathy in 1960). He also founded the Sutherland Cranial Teaching Foundation in 1953 to guide the training of physicians in cranial osteopathic techniques.

Restrictions: Open for research. Patient files are restricted. Some materials including photographs are restricted and protected by U.S. Copyright Law. The collection is non-circulating and can be viewed by appointment.

Reproduction: Copyright restrictions may apply. Permission to publish from this material must be facilitated through the repository, University of North Texas Health Science Center, Gibson D. Lewis Library, University Archives.

Provenance: The Sutherland Collection was formed by Anne L. Wales, D.O. from her own materials, memorabilia received from Dr. Sutherland's wife, Adah, and educational materials from Rebecca Conrow Lippincott D.O. by way of Ernest F. Bernhardt, D.O. Anne Wales transferred these materials to John H. Harakal, D.O. in 1987, who then donated them to the Gibson D. Lewis Library at the University of North Texas Health Science Center at Fort Worth, Texas. Currently housed in the University Archives, the Collection has attracted scholars from around the world including Australia, Canada, England, France and Scotland.
