The Class of 2000...

...would like to dedicate this book to Lee Tayon for her commitment to our class.
We sincerely appreciate all of your support of us!!!

Dear Class of 2000,

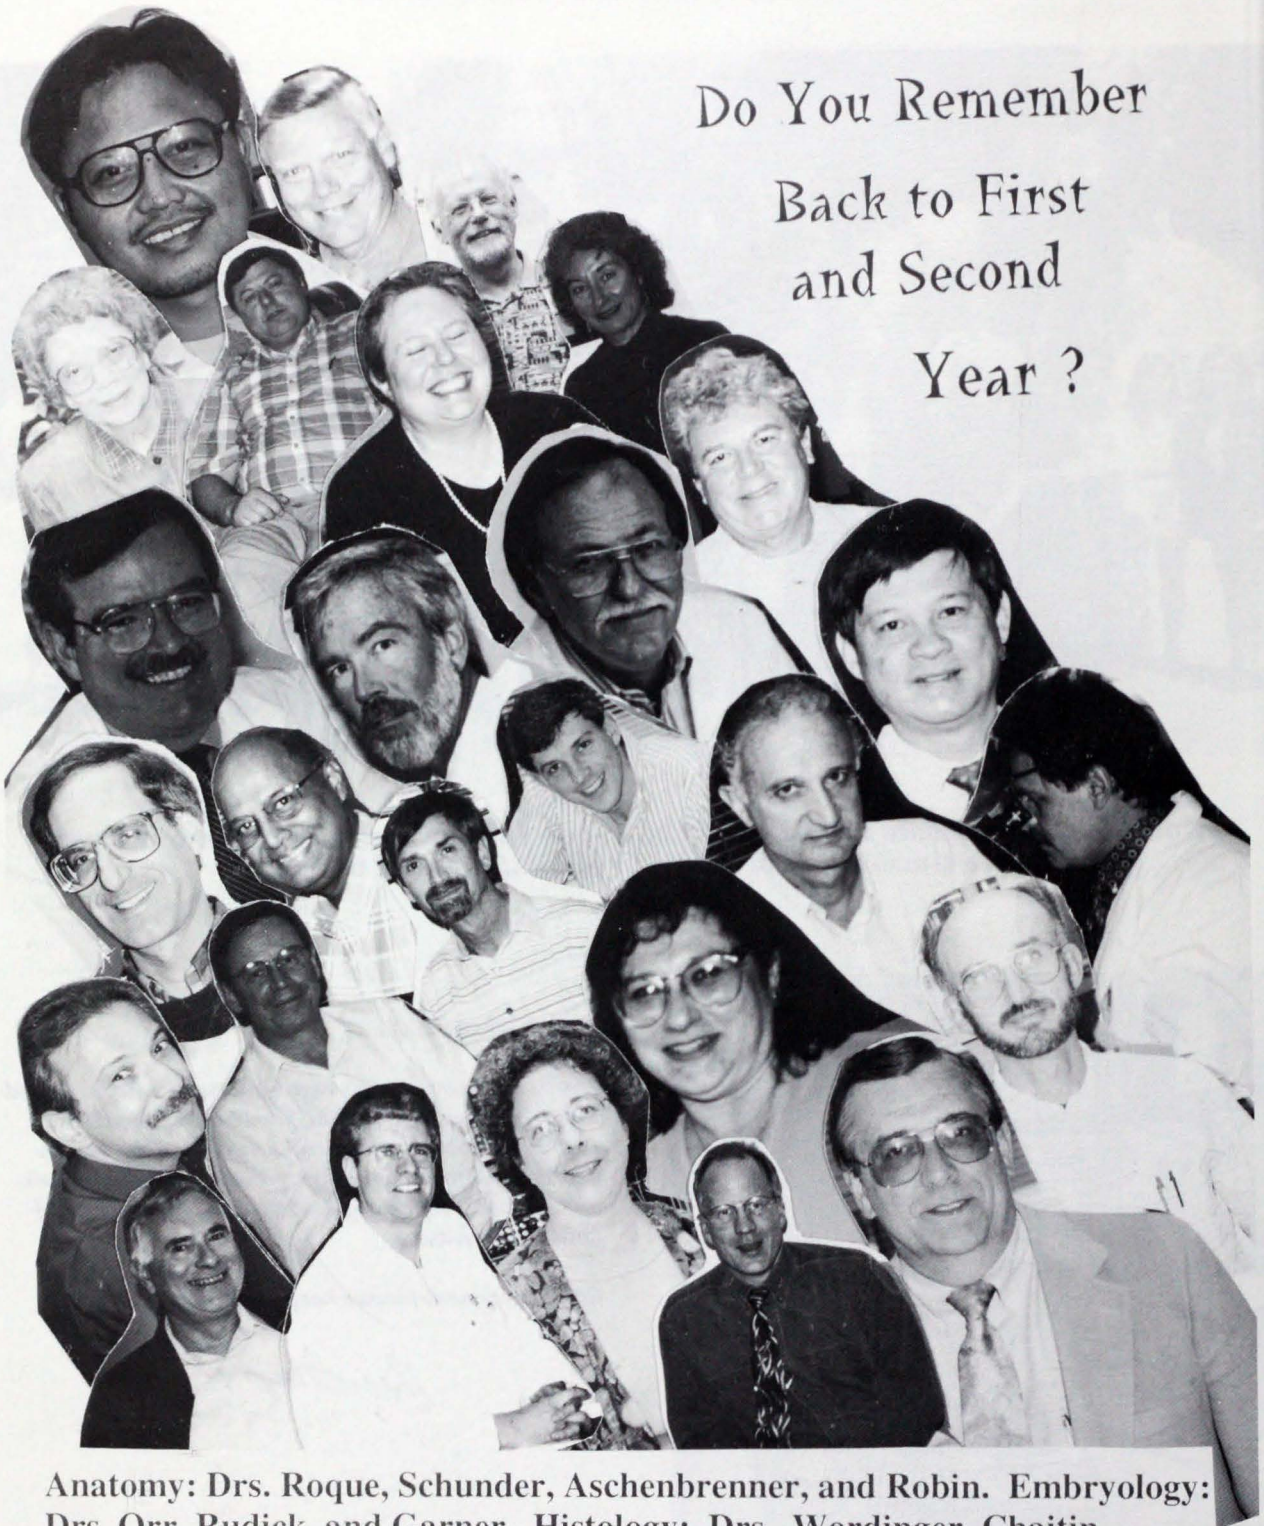

Words cannot express how surprised and honored I was by your gift of the Speculum dedication. Each of you are special and have made my job fun and enjoyable. I am proud of you and look forward to hearing great things about each of you in the future.

God speed and please keep in touch!

Lee Tayon

To laugh often and much
To win the respect of intelligent people and the affection of children
To earn the appreciation of honest critics and to endure the betrayal of false friends
To appreciate beauty
To find the best in others
To leave the world a bit better, whether by a healthy child,
a garden patch,
A redeemed social condition, or a job well done
To know even one other life has breathed easier
because you have lived,
This is to have succeeded.

To Kathrine, Amy, and Collin: There is nothing more important than family. Graduation day belongs to the family as very few significant accomplishments are the work of one. It took all of us to get through Medical School.

Since Amy and Collin will look at this page from time to time, I'll give you both two thoughts:

- Wealth is not what you have, it is what you can do without.
- Success comes from learning how to recover from failure. It's not how many times you get knocked down that's important, it's how many times you get back up! Always get back up!

Stephen John Whipple, D.O.

*Afoot and lighthearted, I take to the open road.
Healthy, free, the world before me,
the long brown path leading, wherever I choose.
Henceforth I ask not good fortune, I am good fortune.
Henceforth I wimper no more,
postpone no more, need nothing.
Done with indoor complaints,
quarrelous criticism, libraries.
Strong and content, I take to the open road.
W.W.*

Me in Sicily, 4th year, one long Holiday.

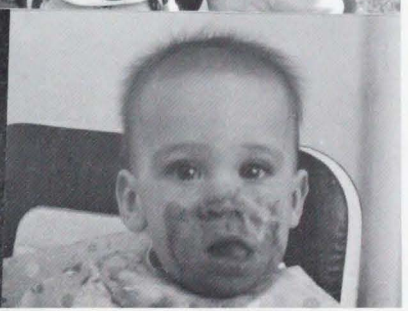

My new life in California awaits....

Well, this is the end of the book...yeah! I want everyone to know that we did our best and hope that you will enjoy looking at these senior pages every once and a while. We've had some great times together and I wish you many more in the years ahead!

An Old Irish Blessing

May the road rise up to meet you.

The wind be always at your back.

May the sun shine warm upon your face.

The rains fall soft upon your fields

and until we meet again,

May God hold you in the palm of his hand.

This is a special prayer from me to all of you!
Sincerely, Katherine McNamara

All I can say is...Thank you for all of your help!!!!!!!!!!!!
Also, thanks to Susie Chiang & Anita Patel!!!!
